

Tre Donne Donna Bianca Roero Arneis D.O.C.

(DOHN-ah bee-AHN-ka roh-EH-roh ahr-NAYZ)

Roero Arneis is a wine that seemingly satisfies everyone. It is crisp and clean, with terrific bite and cleanliness that delights the palate of white wine lovers; but as this is Arneis, the mouth-feel is full and lush. So much so, in fact, it is called il Barolo Bianco (the White Barolo), because of its surprising weight and satisfaction in the mouth, which makes it as equally pleasing to red wine drinkers! Blushing with fresh grass, flowers, and ripe pear, Tre Donne has done it again!

LOCATION

Piemonte, Italia.
(Town of Neive)
30 hectares. 450 meters.

SOIL

Marl and clay.

ESTATE

Tre Donne.
(tray DOHN-ay)

VINE

Guyot.
3,000-4,000 vines per hectare.
1 bottle per plant average yield.

WINEMAKER

Daniela, Rosanna & Antonella.
(don-YEAH-lah)
(roh-z-AHN-ah)
(ahn-toh-NAY-lah)

VINIFICATION

Fermentation in temperature controlled tanks.

VARIETALS

100% Arneis.

BARREL

No barrel aging.

RESIDUAL SUGAR

3.0 grams per liter.

MATURATION

3 months in the bottle.

ACIDITY

5.4 grams per liter.

VINTAGE PRODUCTION

2,500 cases.

ALCOHOL

13.0% by volume.

FOOD PAIRING

Mushroom ragu, perfectly roasted chicken with rosemary, and wild bird.

Discovering the best hand-harvested, family-owned, earth-friendly Mediterranean wine.

www.svimports.com